

Announcement from Muang Pran Buri School

Subject: No Gift Policy 2025

*****

Muang Pran Buri School has realized the significance of strengthening the organizational culture, values, and appropriate guidelines for its staff to adhere to when giving or receiving gifts, incentives, or any other benefits related to our responsibilities. This measure aims to prevent actions that could lead to the abuse of authority for personal or others' advantages, in line with the government's policy on corruption prevention and combating unethical conduct.

To manifest our dedication to combating corruption in all its forms and promoting a culture of integrity, ethics, and honesty in our work, leading to a transparent and principled functioning, Muang Pran Buri School declares itself as an organization in which all personnel shall refrain from accepting any types of gifts or incentives during our duties, whether before, during, or after. This is to prevent actions that could potentially influence their judgment or decision-making while performing our responsibilities, leading to biased practices or conflicting interests. All management and supervisory levels will exemplify best practices and oversee personnel under our authority to conduct ourselves appropriately and strictly adhere to corruption prevention and misconduct prevention measures.

Therefore, this announcement is made to inform everyone and is to be strictly adhered to and followed.

Announced on July 7, 2025.

(Miss. Angkana Panprasert)
Director of Muang Pran Buri School
